

Crafty Friends is a group of volunteers who enjoy using their quilting, sewing and crafting talents and creativity to produce handmade goods to sell in Nature's Overlook to help support the programs of the refuge. We meet the second Wednesday of the month at 1 pm to have a cup of coffee and brainstorm about new projects to undertake. Occasionally we will produce items as requested, if they are within our abilities. We always welcome new members to our group.